Most Memorable Moment in the Institute: MANY Sports, college day events, Interaction with seniors and juniors, standing out of the classes for being late, friends teasing's, all time supporting management, above all these things, I'm very happy about my staff for guiding me all the time in clinical departments and for sharing the knowledge.....Institute taught me how to balance myself and my life.....

Teaching in our college was so good in both theory and practice. I suggest that if the third year BDS students have better clinical exposure (clinical examination of patients in hospitals) regarding general medicine and pathology subjects they can understand very well about the subject.

Exposure

to More number of cases

Adequate

staff should be maintained

Before

coming out of the institute with doctor degree. We should be able to learn the basic life support techniques and skills. It is better to have theory and practical sessions for internship students regarding basic life support. IV, IM injection techniques.

More

practical exposure

Sports
and cultural activities should be conducted
